Prices in this menu reflect base pricing. Total costs of food and service will vary based on final customer selections and number of attendees. In addition, market conditions may necessitate a price change during your consideration period; if that happens, we will notify you. All food and beverage costs will be subject an additional 25% service charge to cover operational costs & back of house fees. This service charge is not a gratuity. Estimated total cost for food and service, including the 25% service charge, will be provided once menu selections and general number of attendees are provided. Final costs of food and service, including the 25% service charge, will be reflected on your final catering invoice. Please see the General Information in this menu for additional terms and conditions.
